We will be advertising the Green Fair on newspapers, TV channels, radio stations, and the Internet, as well as distributing fliers in the Greater Los Angeles area regularly. This is definitely an excellent opportunity to market your brand names to the public and the increasing green-awareness population. If you want to increase your foot traffic and expand your clientele for your business, this is the right choice. We are certain that it will be an absolutely rewarding opportunity for you. What are you waiting for? Please contact us today for participation information. (626) 940-9481
